POETRY SLAM

March 30 - 9:30 pm. Poetry slams are an opportunity for poets to show off their talent in competition. Students from Bethune-Cookman University's Tongues of Fires spoken-word performances will be on hand to show off their often dramatic, rhythmic, high-energy poetry. The event will also include poets showcased in Bethune-Cookman History Professor Raphael Jackson's anthology, Jackson's Temple. The March 30 poetry slam will feature a competition between an Orlando contingent of spoken-word poetry performers and Daytona area poets. But poets from the general public are encouraged to come and compete, too.

The competition is limited to 12 poets, early registration is suggested. First prize is $50 Cash. Second prize a $25 Cinematique gift certificate. The Cinematique Theater, 242 S. Beach Street, Daytona Beach. (386) 252-3118. Admission: $5.
