FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DAYTONA BEACH – Cinematique Under The Stars

The Cinematique Under The Stars FREE outdoor movie series is back and better than ever for 2013! On the 4th Friday of every month, Cinematique will present a movie under the stars in Riverfront Park in Daytona Beach.

The outdoor movie series is part of the new Front Porch Friday Festival. The all-day festival has a time travel theme “Celebrate Time”, each month represents a decade in time. From morning till the movie at dusk, visitors can enjoy health and wellness activities, sidewalk sales, lunch and happy hour specials, live music and themed art projects and dinner specials at the Riverfront Shops along Beach Street.

January 25th will feature the 1990’s and the movie “Days of Thunder”. The movie was made right here in Daytona Beach about Nascar racing and stars a young Tom Cruise. Admission to the movie is free, concession items will be available for purchase. Coolers are not allowed, bring a chair or blanket to sit in the grass. An added bonus to each event: All of the movies are based on books. The City Island Library is sponsoring a book club that meets the following Monday at 10am. To join the book club call (386) 257-6037.

The Cinematique Under The Stars Series is presented by Cinematique of Daytona. Volusia County’s only dedicated Art House Cinema, offering a Unique Café Cinema Experience. The not-for-profit group is seeking monthly sponsors to help with the expense of providing the free movies to the community. Each sponsor will be listed on the Cinematique web-site, on the outdoor movie screen and given live announcements during each event. For more information please call Stephanie Mason-Teague at (386) 871-7873.
