GET “DAZED & CONFUSED” AT CINEMATIQUE’S 420 DOUBLE FEATURE

Cult classic films Reefer Madness and Dazed & Confused will show at Cinematique’s 420 Double Feature on Saturday, April 20th, a date that has been unofficially embraced by pot smokers as "weed day" across the country.

The double feature kicks off at 7:30 p.m. with a screening of Reefer Madness. This 1936 anti-marijuana propaganda film tells the cautionary tale of a trio of drug dealers who turn innocent teenagers into addicts by throwing wild parties with jazz music. Richard Linklater's 1993 film, Dazed & Confused, starring young Ben Affleck and Matthew McConaughey, will screen at 9 p.m. The story is set in 1976 and follows the random activities of a sprawling group of Texas high schoolers celebrating summer’s arrival.

Admission to this double feature is $10 and includes door prizes and discounted concessions items. The Café cinema offers a full dining menu including beer, wine and gourmet coffees. “Not Pot Brownies” will also be available for purchase during this special event.

The Cinematique Theater is located at 242 S. Beach Street, downtown Daytona Beach. To buy tickets in advance, call the box office (386) 252-3118.
