Daytona Native Premieres Film

Daytona Beach native Salenta Baisden to premiere new film "The Dark Party" at the Cinematique Theater

Baisden was born and raised in Daytona Beach, a graduate of Mainland High School and Bethune Cookman University. After graduation she went to Los Angeles in pursuit of a film career. Her most recent project "The Dark Party" will have its world premiere on Thursday May 30th at the Cinematique Theater.

THE DARK PARTY - written and produced by Salenta Baisden, stars and is directed by Kadeem Hardison, (best known for portraying Dwayne Wayne on the Cosby Show spin-off "A Different World") and Marcus Patrick (CSI: Miami, Days of Our Lives). The film tells the story of two best friends, Jeff and Mike, who want to find love without playing games with the women in their lives. They decide to throw the ultimate blind date party with the aid of a talk radio psychologist, who turns the fun and games into a serious social experiment. In the midst of all their fun lurks a killer whose dead set on eliminating one of the players.

A fight over girl brought Jeff and Mike together when they were kids. As adults Jeff, the shy, sensitive artist, and Mike, the confident, handsome producer, are still an unlikely pair. These best friends for life have helped each other through the ups and down of one bad relationship after the next. The two find themselves searching for the true meaning of love and asking themselves how much would they compromise just to possess the one thing that eludes them both.

World premiere Red Carpet arrivals begin at 7:00 pm, show time 7:30 pm. The Cinematique Theater, 242 S. Beach Street, Daytona Beach. (386) 252-3118. Advanced tickets suggested $7 - $9.
