ERAU professor presents ‘Bike there!’

Dr. Jason Aufdenberg will share information about cargo bikes, route planning, and the building of a better bicycle infrastructure at 2 p.m. Saturday, March 5, in the Launch Pad at the Daytona Beach Regional Library at City Island, 105 E. Magnolia Ave., Daytona Beach

After his presentation, he’ll demonstrate how to fix a flat tire.

Dr. Aufdenberg is an associate professor of physics and astronomy at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University and a member of the River to Sea TPO’s Bicycle Pedestrian Advisory Committee. His observations are based on almost a decade of using the bicycle as a primary mode of transportation in the Daytona Beach area.

Reservations are not required for this free program, which is sponsored by the Friends of the Daytona Beach Library. For more information contact Lorri Davis at 386-257-6036, ext. 16154.

The library is open seven days a week at 105 E. Magnolia Ave. Hours are 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday.
