Crafts on tap at Daytona Beach library

Teens and adults can unleash their inner crafter during free programs in the Launch Pad at the Daytona Beach Regional Library at City Island, 105 E. Magnolia Ave.

They can get their hands dirty as they design and create a unique clay platter just in time for Easter. Artist Heather Wales, owner of Down to Earth, will lead a free workshop for adults and teens at 2 p.m. Mondays, March 13 and 27. Participants must attend both days. They will make and design their pieces on the first day and paint them during the second session. Reservations are required; contact Erica Davis at edavis@volusia.org 386-527-6036, ext. 16314.

The library also offers a craft program from 2 to 5 p.m. every Tuesday. Each week offers a different activity – sewing, quilting, jewelry making or general crafting. Materials will be provided. Reservations are not required.

These programs are made possible through funding from the Friends the Daytona Beach Library.

The library is open from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday.
