

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DAYTONA BEACH FLORIDA - January 24, 2016

The Cinematique Theater of Daytona presents a special one-time Valentine's Day screening of 'Lovely, Still'. This directorial debut from Nik Fackler stars Academy Award winning actors Martin Landau and Ellen Burstyn as two late-in-life lovers discovering the unexpected joys and mysteries of love. Elizabeth Banks co-stars as Burstyn's kind, yet protective, daughter. Adam Scott rounds out the cast as Landau's relationship aficionado, guiding him through the dos-and-don'ts of dating while forming an uncommonly strong friendship. 'Lovely, Still' has garnered Official Selections from the Toronto International Film Festival and the Chicago International Film Festival. As part of this special Valentine's Day screening Cinematique will be offering TWO movie tickets, TWO beverages (including beer and wine!) and ONE appetizer to share for only $25! Bring your Valentine for a lovely night at the movies! The show starts at 5:30pm February 14th at the Cinematique Theater located at 242 S. Beach Street in historic Downtown Daytona Beach. Advance tickets can be purchased at the box office. For additional show times and information visit us online at www.cinematique.org or call the box office at 386-252-3118