THE CINEMATIQUE THEATER IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE JEWISH FEDERATION OF VOLUSIA AND FLAGLER COUNTIES PRESENT THE 2017 JEWISH FILM SERIES

The Cinematique Theater in partnership with The Jewish Federation of Volusia and Flagler Counties is pleased to announce the 2017 Jewish Film Series. The Jewish Film Series spans over two days and features films from around the world that showcase Jewish life, culture, and history. Using the power of film to inform, educate, and most of all entertain, this film series challenges conventional perspectives on issues facing all of us.

March 18th 7:00pm – Jewish Film Series Opening Night – Tickets $25 Ticket purchase for opening night includes light hor d’oeuvres, a complimentary beverage, and admission to the featured film, A Matter of Size.

A Matter of Size is an Israeli comedy (yes, comedy!) like nothing you've seen before, a hilarious and heart-warming tale about a coming out of a different kind: four overweight guys who learn to love themselves through the Japanese sport of sumo wrestling!

March 19th 1:00pm – Rock In The Red Zone – Tickets $7 An unflinching and inspiring profile of the Israeli city of Sderot, where a lively music scene helps residents cope with constant rocket attacks from the Gaza Strip.

Film graciously sponsored by: Ada Siegel Cultural and Educational Fund at Congregation B’nai Torah The Jewish Federation of Volusia and Flagler Counties has provided, through donations from its members, two fire trucks and two bomb shelters for the community of Sderot, Israel.

March 19th – 3:30pm – Labyrinth of Lies – Tickets $7 When a journalist identifies a teacher as a former guard from Auschwitz, no one wants to take notice. But a young prosecutor takes on the case and can't be stopped.

Series Pass available for purchase - $36 – Includes admission to opening night March 18 and both featured films March 19 All tickets can be purchased at The Cinematique Theater
