Kick off the Summer by "travelling" to the African wilderness with the movie 'I Dreamed of Africa' showing July 10th. This true story was inspired by Kuki Gallmann, an inquisitive woman who had the courage to leave her comfortable life in Italy to start anew in the wilds of Africa. Next up We're off to Italy with the movie 'Under the Tuscan Sun' on July 24th. In 'Under the Tuscan Sun' Diane Lane plays a writer who impulsively buys a villa in Tuscany to change her life.

See French cuisine come to life on the big screen in 'Julie & Julia' showing August 7th. Meryl Streep portrays world renowned chef Julia Child in the story of her start in the cooking profession.

On August 21st Woody Allen's romantic drama 'Vicky Cristina Barcelona' tells the story of two young American women spending the summer in Spain both of whom become amorously entangled with a Spanish artist.

In September, Travel north to Bruges, the most well-preserved city in the whole of Belgium, which also happens to be the destination for Colin Farrell and Ralph Fiennes in the feature film 'In Bruges' showing September 4. This welcoming city could be the final destination for these two hitmen as they await orders from their ruthless boss.

Capping off the Summer Staycation will be Robert Redford's classic 'A River Runs Through It' on September 18th. This skilled adaptation tells the story of a stern minister raising his two sons- one reserved, one rebellious- in the rural 'Big Sky Country' of Montana while devoted to fly-fishing.
