

March 19, 2015

HOPPIN' RATTLESNAKES SHOWINGS AT THE HALIFAX HISTORICAL MUSEUM

The acclaimed documentary Hoppin' Rattlesnakes: Oral histories of auto racing on the beaches of Ormond and Daytona, 1903-1958, is available for viewing at the Halifax Historical Museum during the months of March, April and May. Seating is limited to groups of three or less so reservations are needed. Call 386-255-6976 to make a reservation. The museum is located at 252 South Beach Street, Downtown Daytona. Admission is $5.

Hoppin' Rattlesnakes is 52-minutes in length.

Showing schedule:

Tuesday through Friday – 11 a.m. to last screening at 3 p.m.

Saturdays – 10:30 a.m. to last screening at 2:30 p.m.

RESERVATIONS ARE NEEDED AS SEATING FOR THE FILM IS LIMITED TO A MAXIMUM OF 3 PEOPLE.

Showings of Hoppin' Rattlesnakes are sponsored by the Florida Humanities Council.

There is ample, free parking behind the museum: from Beach Street, go west on Magnolia Avenue, take the first left at the parking sign, behind Kebabji restaurant.