Daytona Beach library hosts craft programs

From beading to sewing, adults and teens can learn new crafting skills at the Daytona Beach Regional Library at City Island, 105 E. Magnolia Ave., Daytona Beach.

Volunteers will lead these free programs in the library's Launch Pad, a high-tech makerspace, in March:

- Beginning and intermediate quilting: 2 to 4 p.m. every Tuesday
- Beginning sewing: 4 to 6 p.m. every Tuesday except March 15
- Cricut craft cutter project: 9 to 11 a.m. Wednesday, March 2

Patrons can bring their own beads to a self-guided beading group that will meet from 2 to 4 p.m. Thursday, March 3. Some beads and tools will be available.

Registration is required; call 386-257-6036, ext. 16154, or email ljdavis@volusia.org. Many of the materials have been provided through donations. Attendees are asked to purchase specific items, including sewing notions, for some of the projects.

The Launch Pad is looking for volunteers who have special skills, hobbies or craft talents they would like to share.

The library is open from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday.
