

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Daytona Books & Metaphysics now has a resident numerologist!
Caroline Kiefer brings her deep interest in metaphysics and her self-study of numerology's core principles to our shop.

Caroline thrives on witnessing the self-awareness and transformations that can happen for a client when she walks them through the numerology present in their given names and in their lives. She also has a gift for illustrating the connections between numerology and other metaphysical studies, so a numerological reading with her is an exploration of symbols and signs that guide you to a knowledgeable and empowered look at your own life.

You can experience a 30 minute reading with Caroline for $60, and additional time for clarifying questions you might have can also be purchased for $2 per minute.

To read more about our Shana, our featured this week, employee and numerologist this week, scroll to the bottom of this newsletter! See below for our new and recurring events! We're a full service metaphysics center with so much to offer you on your journey.

Caroline joins our team of employees all gifted in different metaphysical arts--Joe, our astrologer, Shana our new psychic and Tarot reader, and Karyn, a very experienced psychic medium with a true and deep gift for reaching those on the other side and for helping you on your path, who can also use the Tarot to provide these insights.

If gems are a fascination for you, David, a longtime employee at the shop, is our resident expert in both the metaphysical and physical properties of stones in the shop, and can help you to discover the stones essential to your healing or where you're at on your particular path. David also has decades of knowledge of metaphysical topics as an independent scholar which he can apply to your personal spiritual needs and questions.

Next week we will be featuring some of our beautiful new inventory!

PROFILE OF CAROLINE KIEFER, NUMEROLOGIST AT DAYTONA BOOKS AND METAPHYSICS

When asked about how she discovered the power of numerology, Caroline indicated that numerology is more than just numbers, "What I do is not just numerology--it's the art of symbolism. Numerology is at the core of all ancient esoteric sciences. It's the foundation of all creation."

Depending on what you're looking for in your numerology session with her, Caroline can decode your given birth name, and provide you clarity on your present circumstances, illuminating your life choices, your attitudes, your personality traits: "I can help you discover a new self-awareness and so you can utilize your own personal powers to be in harmony with your surroundings."

"What is within me?" is a question numerology can help you address, and Caroline guides you to apply what you learn: "When you discover what the numbers say about who you are, you can discover the ways that you can use these qualities to your benefit as well as how to not use them to harm or self-sabotage your goals and dreams."

Caroline learns something with each and every new session: "When I decode a person's life and personality, it helps me understand the larger universe and how energies work." She's interested in the great web of interconnected symbolism and how other metaphysical energies are rooted in numerology's core principles.

Caroline loves that Daytona Books & Metaphysics provides her an opportunity to expand her core knowledge on metaphysical topics. She recognizes that her colleagues at the shop are knowledgeable in metaphysical topics about which she'd like to attain a deeper knowledge, so she is here to learn and listen as well as to share her insights.

Caroline is ready to apply her gifts to the questions you might have about yourself, your path, and your larger questions of existence. She is currently available for readings on Saturdays and Sundays, but will likely be expanding her hours.

Call the shop to schedule an appointment with her!
