

Matt Venuti plays the Hang

"Matt's performance opens the heart, quiets the mind, and deeply touches the soul "
Arun Gandhi, author, lecturer, grandson of Mahatma Gandhi

Experience an intimate concert featuring Matt Venuti playing the Hang; a contemporary instrument with timeless properties, endless potential, and truly an instrument for our time.

Hang means hand in Swiss-German and in Matt's hands it is pure magic!

Visit www.mattvenuti.com to watch Matt's videos, listen to his music and read more about the Hang.

"The resonance of his instrument and the poetry in his hands open me to a proverbial peace"-
The Rev. Muata Rasuli, Senior Minister/Community Leader, The San Francisco Center for Spiritual Living

Coming to Renew Yoga!

A soul-stirring musical journey with Matt Venuti and the Hang

Saturday, February 9th 7:00 p.m. $20.00

224 South Beach St. Unit 105 Daytona Beach 386 238-0909

"An extraordinary journey into a new frontier of rhythm, melody, and resonance" -Sherri Baptiste...Baptiste Power of Yoga

Multi-instrumentalist/composer Matt Venuti is known for his unique and soul-inspiring approach to the Hang, the most exciting new acoustic instrument of the 21st Century, and one of the most captivating and versatile of all time.

Matt frequently performs at notable venues and gala events worldwide, either as a soloist or with his San Francisco based ensemble, The Venusians. He is currently on tour performing solo Hang concerts.

