DAYTONA BEACH FILM FESTIVAL TO FEATURE THREE DAYS OF MOVIES, FOOD AND FUN

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. – The popular Daytona Beach Film Festival will return for its 10th year Friday, November 9 through Sunday, November 11, 2012.

The event will showcase films from a variety of genres at the Cinematique Theater of Daytona, the area's art-house cinema. A variety of additional activities will also round out the weekend.

On Friday, November 9, guests at the opening night festivities have the chance to meet Burn Notice star Seth Peterson. The Saturday of the festival will include the Riverfront Market, with live music, food and unique gifts from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. On Saturday evening, there will be a free showing of Hugo—sponsored by the Daytona Beach Downtown Development Authority—at 6 p.m. on a giant outdoor screen. And Sunday, November 9 will bring a Food Truck Bazaar, with a picnic and live music in the park from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Cinematique is located at 242 S. Beach Street. The theater is part of the Riverfront Shops of Daytona Beach—the unique new name for the historic Beach Street retail area located between Bay Street and Orange Avenue.

Visit DBFF.org for further information on the film festival, or contact the Cinematique box office at (386) 252-3778.
